Votre message : Hey there, love the design of pouldreuzic.bzh.

A good friend of mine, a domain investor (web addresses), is auctioning off his entire .ai portfolio due to financial difficulties.

To be clear: all 80 premium domains, like setups.ai and units.ai (plural), are auctioning from $99—while the singular versions (setup.ai is $400k, unit.ai is $357k) are listed for hundreds of thousands by other investors.

It's like a foreclosure auction for a house, but with domains and way more upside.

For example, he bought trademarks.ai last July for $160 and sold it in November for $2,997 - just by listing it on a marketplace like Sedo.com.

PS: If you're interested, just click the big .ai banner on Sedo.com. Auction ends 26.09.
